WOW - Women of the World Festival Bradford is back for its third year!

WOW is a global festival that celebrates the incredible achievements of women and girls, takes a frank look at the obstacles they face, and creates a space to discuss new solutions together. With over 2 million people involved, WOW takes place in 30 cities all over the world; recent festivals have taken place in New York, Baltimore, Rio de Janeiro, Pakistan, Nepal, Bangladesh, Australia, Somaliland, Finland, and across the UK.

Join us for a weekend of talks, discussions, music, activism, performance, mentoring and big ideas, and hear from women who are breaking the mould in science, entrepreneurship, the arts, sport, economics, health, and business from Bradford, nationally and internationally. There are sessions on everything from personal lives though to global concerns, including race, body image, violence against women and girls, religion, the role of men in gender equality, and a special one off set from Kate Tempest.

So come and have your say at WOW. We look forward to seeing you at Kala Sangam and Bradford Cathedral.

Ticketing: WOW Saturday Day Pass: £8 / £6 conc. & WOW Sunday Day pass: £8/ £6 conc. available from Bradford Theatres Box Office and website.

A WOW Day pass enables access to all WOW events on the ticketed date apart from the Kate Tempest concert. Please note that some of the talks will have limited space, WOW Bradford is programmed as a festival with multiple events and talks happening at the same time, talks are therefore filled on a first come, first served basis. Some popular talks may reach capacity, and although there will be an alternative talk or workshop available, it is very advisable to get to events early.

Venue Location and Access: Kala Sangam is located directly opposite The Broadway Shopping Centre in Bradford. It is the building just outside the exit near to Marks and Spencers and next door to Bradford Cathedral.
